

BLEW HEAD OFF WITH SHOT GUN

Edwin Powers a Despondent School Teacher Out of Work Suicides in Terrible Manner

Kills Himself in Corn Crib While Wife is Preparing Supper—Acting Coroner Campbell Views Remains.

Despondent over his inability to secure employment, Edwin Powers, 45 years old, a highly respected school teacher living at Amsterdam, a few miles south of here, placed a double barreled shotgun to his head and discharged it by pressing the trigger with his foot. The entire top of his head was blown off.

Mr. Powers had been a school teacher all his life, teaching principally at Amsterdam, Messmore and the Bird school in Bowling Green township. Last summer he came to Newark and searched for clerical work and was told by a friend that he could probably secure employment for him in the offices of one of the glass factories here. Hoping to secure this work, Mr. Powers made no effort to secure a school for the winter.

Then when it was too late to put in his application for a school he received word that it would be impossible to give him the position he desired in this city. All winter the teacher brooded over his lack of work, and his wife, fearing he might take his life, hid a shotgun that belonged to him. Several times Powers talked to his neighbors and to a friend of his, James Cochran, to whom he told his entire story of disappointment.

As the days lengthened into weeks his despondency became more pronounced. Sunday afternoon his wife and children, Bertha aged 14, and Oren, who is aged 11 years, went to church and left Mr. Powers at home. Just how he spent the afternoon is not known, but he probably searched for the shotgun that was hidden in his home. When his family returned home about 6 o'clock, his wife at once commenced to prepare supper, while Powers went to the barn.

He entered the house soon after, but almost immediately left again and that was the last seen of him alive. When the evening meal was ready and on the table, Mrs. Powers called her husband several times and when he did not respond she went to a neighbor and asked him if they had seen him. A search was then instituted and shortly after Mr. Dora Blade entered the corn crib. There huddled in a corner lying on the gun, was the remains of his old friend, the entire top of his head blown off, and his brain plastered on the walls and ceiling.

Stumbling from the crib of death, Blade called several men and they hurried to the home of James Cochran, the nearest house that had a telephone, and called Squire Robert Campbell to respond, who acted as coroner and viewed the remains. The undertaking firm of Criss Bros. & Jones was also notified. The men then returned to the Powers home and after the acting coroner had viewed the remains, the body was carried into the house.

Several persons living in the quiet little village heard the report of the gun, but deadened by the walls and the extreme humidity of the air, they thought the shot came from much farther away. The widow is prostrated by the shock and like the neighbors, is unable to understand the motive, for Powers was well to do and owned property in the vicinity.

Mr. Powers was a member of Williams lodge I. O. O. F. No. 363 of Hebron and the funeral will be under the auspices of that lodge. It will be held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at the Fairmount church, the interment will be made in the Fairmount cemetery.

HITCHCOCK TRIAL AGAIN POSTPONED

(Bulletin.)
New York, March 2.—The trial of Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, was again continued today by Justice Blanchard in the criminal branch of the supreme court until March 10. An arrangement was effected whereby Hitchcock's attorneys will be allowed to inspect the minutes of the grand jury that indicted him, and for calling a special grand jury.

INFANTICIDE

Left Note Stating She Was Losing Her Mind—Funeral of Suicide and Victims Held Today.
Lancaster, O., March 2.—The funeral of Mrs. Bettie Spires and four children she slew before killing herself, took place today. The woman left a note saying she was losing her mind and could not leave her children alone.

TORPEDO FLOTILLA

HAS ARRIVED AT CALLAO, HAVING STEAMED INTO PORT ON SUNDAY.

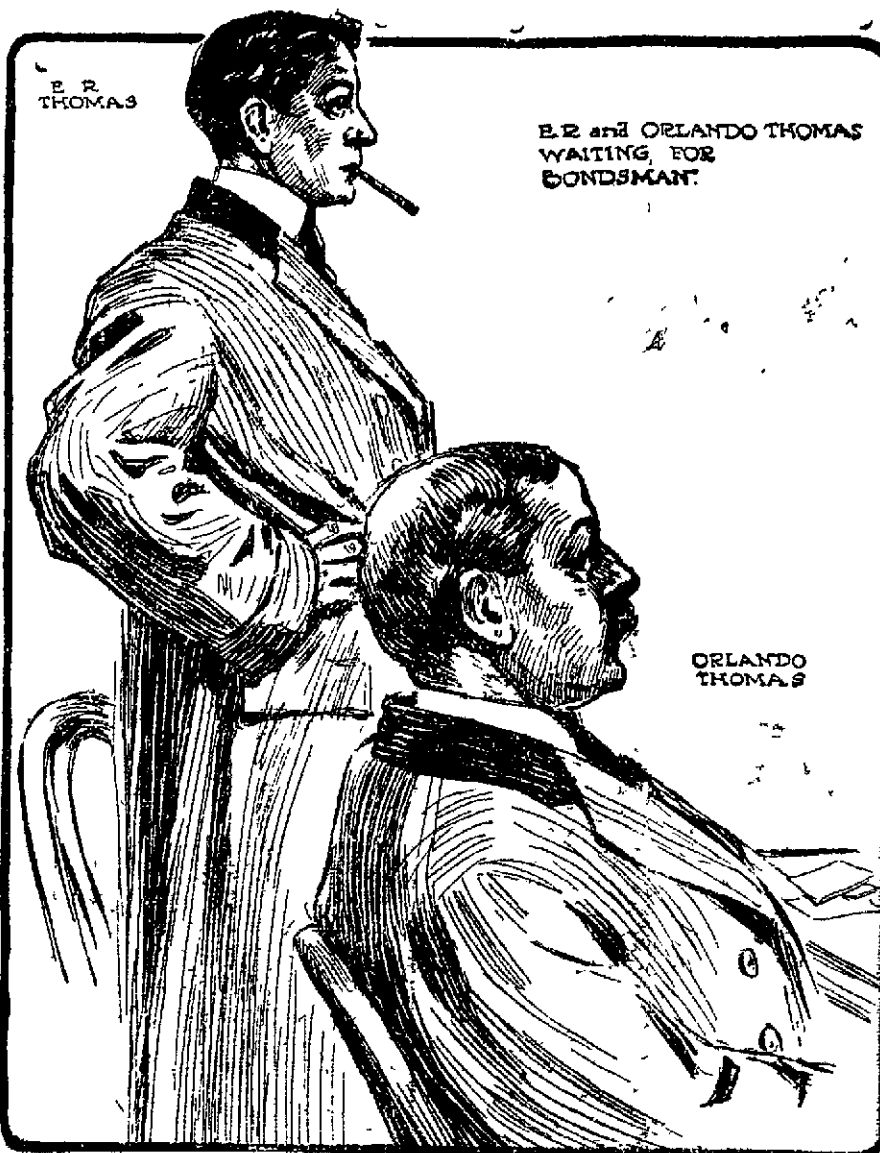

Three Days Ahead of Schedule and Will Remain Until Monday—Following Battleship Squadron.

Callao, Peru, March 2.—Officers and men from the United States torpedo boat flotilla are enjoying themselves here and at Lima quite as much as did those of the battleship squadron, now on its way to Macdela Bay.

By steaming into port yesterday three days ahead of their schedule, however, they caught the Peruvians somewhat off their guard and the hurried advancement of the program of entertainments planned for them has resulted in some confusion.

The craft are all in such excellent condition that there is little work to be done, and shore leave will be easy to get between now and March 9, when the flotilla is due to follow the battleships.

FINANCIERS UNDER INDICTMENT.

New York, March 2.—Edward R. Thomas and Orlando P. Thomas, both prominent in financial circles of this city before last October, were arraigned and pleaded not guilty before Judge Dowling in the criminal branch of the supreme court, on indictments found by the special grand jury when his investigation of financial cases.

REMAINS VIEWED BY THOUSANDS

BODY OF MURDERED PRIEST LAY IN STATE FOR NINE HOURS

Ten Thousand People Brave Storm and Wait in Line or Hours—Deed Denounced.

Paterson, N. J., March 2.—Ten thousand persons yesterday looked upon the face of Rev. Father Leo Heinrichs, O. F. M., at St. Bonaventura monastery, in which the murdered priest was for years the pastor.

The body lay in state from noon until 9 o'clock at night and during the nine hours an unbroken procession of mourners passed the bier. So great was the throng that a detail of 50 policemen was required to maintain the formations of two lines that extended for blocks. Through a succession of snow, sleet and rain storms outside the parishioners stood for hours patiently waiting their turns.

Because of failing health Father Leo was transferred last September to Denver, where at the chancel rail of St. Elizabeth's church on Sunday, February 23, he was shot and killed by the avowed anarchist known as Giuseppe Alia.

The funeral was held this morning, when solemn requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Edward Kleckle, assisted by the 40 or more monks and lay brothers in St. Bonaventura's monastery. Bishop John J. O'Connor, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Newark, and a number of other high church dignitaries were present. Interment was made in the plot of the Franciscan Monks in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

NEW ENGLAND BOOMING BRYAN

Boston, March 2.—A score of supporters in New England of the candidacy of William J. Bryan as Democratic candidate for President, attended the meeting of the New England Democratic Progressive League here Saturday, and later participated in a larger gathering of Mr. Bryan's followers at Faneuil Hall.

The league, through its Executive committee, called on all Democratic State and District conventions to instruct all delegates to vote for Mr. Bryan, and called on all Democrats to help secure his nomination and election.

Alexander Troup, President of the league, presided at the meeting, delegates being present from all the New England states.

CHILLED PLOW INVENTOR DEAD

South Bend, Ind., March 2.—James Oliver, founder of the largest plow works in the world, died at his home here today after a long illness. He gained fame by his invention of the "chilled plow."

PETITIONS FOR TIME EXTENSION

ARE DENIED BY THE INTER-STATE COMMERCE COMMISSION TODAY.

Service Law Will Go Into Effect Wednesday and Dispatchers and Operators Work Nine Hours.

Washington, March 2.—The interstate commerce commission decided today by a unanimous vote to deny all petitions for an extension of time within which to comply with the so-called hours of service law. Reasons will be stated in a report which will be made public within a few days.

STOCKHOLDERS

ARE STRIKING WORKMEN AT LICKING GLASS HOUSE AND ARE REFUSED WORK.

Directors Refuse Their Advances and Will Retain Men Who Assisted Them—May Leave Town.

Utica, March 2.—There will probably be an exodus of glass workers during the next few days, for the strikers at the Licking factory have played their last card and lost. Saturday night about 20 of the strikers, who are also stockholders in the Licking factory, held a meeting at the home of William Fritz and invited Manager McCann of the factory to be present.

They told him they were willing to give up the strike and go back to work at once. They were informed by the manager that they would have to wait until the directors had held a meeting and talked their case over. This meeting was held this morning and it was decided that their services were not needed. They did all they could to injure the factory and prevent our running, and we will not throw out of a job the men who came to our assistance," one director said. His sentiments were applauded by the others and in all probability the men out of a job, even though they are stockholders, will undoubtedly leave this work for other towns, where they may be able to secure work. About one-fourth of the stock is controlled by these men, 15 or 20 in all.

ROBBERS

Blow Millersport Post Office Safe— Secure Nice Sum

MEAT MARKET ROBBED

Criminals Escape to Hebron On T. & O. C. Hand Car

Lancaster: Bloodhounds Sent To Trail Crooks—May Be Gang That Worked Here.

Millersport, O., March 2.—Safe crackers and burglars got in their work here between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning and cleaned up a nice little bunch of money. The first place visited by them was the Brison & Haver meat market. Here they gained entrance by forcing the rear door and secured $20. They left the place by the front door and neglected to lock it after them.

From there they went to Stittler Bros. hardware store, where is also located the postoffice. Blowing the safe they secured the sum of $385, $310 of that amount being government money. Several dollars worth of postage stamps were also taken. The $75 belonging to the Stittler Brothers was also in the safe where the government money was kept.

Entrance to this place was probably secured by using a pass key for the door was not forced, although a meat cleaver carried from the meat market was found outside the door. The combination on the safe was knocked off with a hatchet, while the money drawer in the safe was pried open with a chisel. The instruments used in forcing the safe were taken from the store. Nitroglycerine was probably used to blow the safe, for in most every particular the work of the crooks agrees with the style used by them in blowing the safes in Newark.

The explosion was heard by several people who thought it was simply a peal of thunder. Harry House, however investigated. As he was opposite the postoffice he stopped with his back to the building and hearing a slight noise, turned in time to see two men disappearing around a corner. He followed them on the run, and fired twice after them, but they were probably not hit, as they did not stop.

Four men are supposed to be mixed up in the job. For about midnight four strangers were seen standing in front of the postoffice. They probably made their escape on a handcar, for a handcar used by T. C. Wiseman, an employee of the T. & O. C. railroad was missing this morning and was found later by some section men at Hebron. Sunday afternoon a shabbily dressed stranger was seen wandering about the street, and as he was rather a suspicious looking character he was watched. He was about 5 feet 8 inches in height, weighed about 155 pounds. His complexion was ruddy and several weeks' growth of sandy colored beard covered his face. His hair was rather light in color. In one hand he carried a dirty looking tan satchel, and in the other a bundle containing a grey comfort. He wore a medium length light colored overcoat.

As soon as the robbery was discovered a message was sent to Lancaster for a brace of bloodhounds and on their arrival they were immediately put on the trail. The police of surrounding towns were notified and a description of the one man was furnished them.

At 1 o'clock today the police received word that the safe crackers had been trailed as far as Hebron by the bloodhounds and that the dogs were headed towards Newark. Chief Zergiche and a squad of policemen immediately went to surround the places suspected as being a rendezvous, for description received tallied with several local characters. The second man was about 30 years old smooth face, light hair, weight about 170 pounds and about 5 feet 7 inches in height, with scar on right cheek. The third man is dark complexioned, height about 5 feet 10 inches and carried a box about 18x20 inches. He is slightly stoop shouldered. Of the fourth man there is no description. It is rumored that the bloodhounds have repeatedly stopped at the home of a well known resident near Buckeye Lake today.

SAFE CRACKERS

ARE STILL BUSY IN THIS IMMEDIATE VICINITY AND MAKE A GOOD HAUL.

Postoffice at Thornville "Touched" for $510—Bloodhounds From Lancaster on Trail.

Thornville, O., March 2.—Burglars entered the postoffice here early today and blew the safe, securing $384 in stamps and $165 in cash. Bloodhounds from Lancaster are on the trail of three men who did the job. The same gang is credited with cracking a safe in the store of Bryson & Hoover, at Millersport.

PETERMEN BUSY AT MADISON. Madison, O., March 2.—Safe blowers' early today dynamited the safe in Bowling & Adlard's store, practically empty of valuables. The robbers got 100 dollars in valuables.

GOV. HARRIS

ISSUES STATEMENT THAT HE WILL NOT BE SENATORIAL CANDIDATE.

As Result of Ultimatum Attorney General Ellis Will Not Be Candidate for Lieut. Governor.

Columbus, O., March 2.—Governor Harris formally declared Monday that he will not be a candidate for United States Senator, but wishes to serve out his full term as governor, if elected next fall. This puts an end to the talk of electing Harris as governor that he may be elevated to the senatorship and allow the Republican chosen as lieutenant governor to assume the duties of the chief executive. As a result of the governor's statement, Attorney General Ellis will not permit the use of his name in connection with the lieutenant governorship.

STEAMER ASHORE ON LONG ISLAND COAST

New York, March 2.—The steamer Coamo of the New York and Porto Rico line, inward bound from San Juan and Mayaguez, with 101 passengers aboard, is ashore on the Long Island coast between Lonsell and the Fire Island life saving station. She was 20 miles out of her course when she struck during a thick fog which overhangs the harbor. Life savers at Lone Hill, Fire Islands and Search's inlet are standing by with their apparatus in case of need.

HURT BY A FALL. Martinsburg, March 2.—Mr. Bert Hill fell off a load of fodder Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock, and fractured his left hip.

"ME AND MY PEOPLE" THE ROOSEVELT PHRASE CONVULSING WASHINGTON

Never Before Has an American President Been the Subject of Such Ridicule, and People are Asking What Does Roosevelt Mean?

Washington, March 2.—Not since Admiral Sampson cabled the news of the victory of the fleet "under my command" has Washington been so stirred by a phrase as by the President's reference to "Me and my people" in his cablegram or reply to President Pardo's felicitations on the "enthusiasm and energy" of Admiral Evans' crews.

President Roosevelt's reply was as follows: "I heartily appreciate your laudatory comments regarding the American fleet. The enthusiastic welcome and friendly demonstration at Callao have gratified and touched the American people, who have had for Peruvian sentiments of sincere esteem. Accept the assurance of the highest considerations and warm regard from 'Me and My People.'"

Those who do not love Mr. Roosevelt are sarcastically inquiring today how long it will be until messages from the White House are signed "Theodore, Rex."

Once when an underling in an Ohio office wired that "Me and the Governor will be up on the next train" people were convulsed. But it is not a merry matter to read that in responding to the felicitations of President Pardo of Peru, Mr. Roosevelt used the phrase "Me and my people."

But a few days ago he alluded to Mr. Knox, as "formerly my attorney general."

Perhaps the "subjects" for whom he was sending thanks, were only the brown Filipinos, whom he made his people by casting his vote when he was vice president.

The king of England always refers to "his subjects" but the king of England was sent rolling down the Bowling Green in 1776, and his leaden statue melted into bullets.

Perhaps again "Me and my people" meant only the Taft cohorts of officeholders, the navy clique, the army favorites, and the chummy cabal among whom the Constitution is deemed a snag confronting schemes and yearnings, easily removable.

BIG HUNTS

IN THE EARLY DAYS OF LICKING COUNTY WERE ANNUAL OCCURENCE.

Wolves, Bears and Deer Were Numerous, and Were Slaughtered
By Hundreds.

Of the many incidents that have been related of the early days in Licking county, no mention has been made in recent articles of the "Big Hunts" that were an annual occurrence in various parts of the country. There was plenty of game all over the country when first settled, and thrilling hunting incidents will be handed down for ages to come. But there was something peculiar in the origin and character of these "Big Hunts" not found elsewhere. About the beginning of the last century a large landholder by the name of Bacchus, had some fifteen hundred acres of land deadened preparatory to having it cleared. It was located in the northeast quarter of Harrison township and the northwest quarter of Union township. The land was not cleared when the timber died, as was intended, but suffered to grow up with briars, thorns, grapevines, and a thick second-growth of timber, until it became almost an impenetrable wilderness, and a great harbor for wild beasts of every variety common to this part of the country. The Bloody Run Swamp a few miles to the south, and another to the west, called the Fallen Timber, where the forest had been prostrated by a tornado, also afforded pretty safe re-treasures for the game to evade the skill of the hunters. The wolves and bears were so numerous and threatening that the hunters were compelled at night to surround their camps with a circle of fire, or to erect a superstructure with poles in the forks of trees beyond the reach of the wolves, to secure their safety while they rested and slept. This deadening was situated nearer to the settlements than those other retreats, and sometimes these wild beasts accumulated in so great numbers at this point that the professional hunters could not afford a sufficient protection to the live stock of the farmers. At such times it became necessary for a general rally of all the pioneers to destroy or drive from the settlements these invading beasts. But for the purpose of killing as many as possible, and to secure the safety of the hunters at these general rallies of "Big Hunts," as they were called, a district of country was surveyed, and the lines well marked. The first was twelve miles in circumference, embracing the great deadening. The second, or inner line, was four miles in circumference, and a third but half a mile in diameter. This centered in an open valley on what was known as Grass Lick Run. To this open valley the game was all driven that had not been killed, or made its escape, before reaching the third line. The hunters were formed in line on the first or outer line, from which they moved at a given signal, and on reaching the second line they all halted until all had reached the line, and a second signal was given, when they again moved until they reached the third and last line: the people being thus prepared for a safe and systematic warfare upon these enemies to their prosperity. When the raids upon the pigs, calves and sheep of the farmers became frequent and destructive, the "Big Hunt" would be gotten up. This was done by calling a public meeting of the people of the several townships that suffered by their depredations, at which meeting they would elect their officers and appoint a day for the hunt. The command was usually given to some experienced military officers, with a suitable number of subordinates. The hunters were all placed in a circle around the hunted district, on the first line, and were not allowed to move from the place assigned them until the concerted signal was given by the discharge of artillery at a given point, when they at once began to move from every point towards the center. Everybody that could carry a gun, or make a noise to help drive the game in, and would obey orders, was exempted from the officers, who were regulated by the officers, who rode along the lines to keep the men in their places. The number of men that attended these hunts was sometimes so great that by the time the circle was reduced to half a mile in diameter, it constituted a solid column all around. And when every part of the column moved with care and strictly obeyed orders, not even a wild cat or anything else could make its escape, except the turkeys and the deer. The former would fly over, and the latter, when they found themselves entirely surrounded, would pass through or over the lines, sometimes in large numbers; while carnivorous animals would hide in the brush, hollow trees, etc. At a suitable point the line was halted, and select hunters sent in to loom up the game. When every hiding place had been carefully examined, the game was all brought in together, and the meat and peltries were divided among the different companies, when all would return home with feelings relieved from fear of any further depredations from that source.

BIG SUNDAY MEETING

Rev. Shannon Spoke to Large Crowd—
Special Music and Unusual Interest.

The men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon will be remembered as one of the best of the season. Rev. Mr. Shannon was proven to be an unusually effective and pleasing speaker, and made a very lasting effect on the large audience. His theme was "Zaccheus, or the Story of a Banker." Mr. Shannon's genial personality as well as his frank and unaffected delivery has won for him many friends, and a welcome hearing every time he speaks.

He will give another address next Sunday afternoon. The music has been exceptionally attractive, the orchestra drawing a large crowd for the opening concert. The Ariel Male Quartet sang two very beautiful selections yesterday. Men who have not been out to these meetings are missing something very fine. More than 300 were present yesterday.

GRANVILLE

Granville, March 2.—The majority of the citizens of Granville believe in being loyal to the home merchants, and no kind of entreaties can wean them away from their own ideas. Recently one of our well known citizens had for a caller a solicitor for a grocery store of Columbus, who tried to make it plain how it would be profitable for every customer to buy from the company he represented. The Granville man listened attentively to his remarks until he finished and then suggested to the agent that if local people don't support the home merchants, within a few months they would all have to be moved to the poor house to be provided for them, which would increase taxation to the extent that the farmers would have to put up the distress and rent sign, and then leave the county. The agent turned away seemingly in deep meditation and has never come back for a second interview to see if his subject has been reconsidered.

A large party of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Henry Williams, several miles northeast of the village on Saturday night, the occasion being the celebration of the birthday anniversary of Miss Anna Williams. An abundant and excellent dinner was served, which fully attested the skill of Mrs. Williams, while the genial Henry made everybody feel that it was a good place to be. After dinner some fine music was enjoyed and Miss Anna was presented with a number of beautiful presents. A most enjoyable time was had by those who were present.

The most deadly instrument known to mortal man is the human tongue. Dynamite is not in it as a trouble breeder. It is the hair trigger of the freer action. It goes off on the slightest provocation. It strikes heavier blows than a prize fighter or a mule kicking down hill. It causes more heartaches than a tax collector. A tongue can make a sore spot for years. The crimes chargeable to the tongue are criticism, unkindness, gossip, lying, scandal, malice and hate, the aggregate of sorrow and murder.

The University of Chicago is just bound to be queer. Here, where everybody else is talking about reducing expenses it goes to work and raises the salaries of its professors 25 per cent. It evidently has no use for low salaried instructors, and the already high standard of the institution has been greatly increased. In these days parents before sending their boys to college generally judge of the ability of the instructors of a school by the salary paid them.

At the regular meeting of the Calhoun Literary society, held Friday night, the following program was carried out: Declaration, Allen; current events, Scott; book review, Cranford; oration, Roch. Brom; autobiography, Rankin; extempore debate, Resolved, That capital punishment is justifiable, aff. Minear; neg. B. Brown; El Cotera, Winter.

Granville people will be interested in knowing that Rev. Clarence M. Eddy, formerly of Coshocton, began his pastorate in the Baptist church of Urbana on Sunday. Mr. Eddy has frequently filled the pulpit of the Urbana church before he was called to assume its pastorate and his strong, able sermons have been heard with keen interest.

The Denison University Glee club will give its first home concert at the hall on Wednesday evening. The members of the club are already making preparations for their spring trip, which will include visits to Springfield, Piqua and Dayton.

Several from this place attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen B. Wells of Croton, which was held Sunday morning at the Disciple church, that place.

Mrs. Susan Ackley, who had the misfortune to have one of her arms broken a few days ago, is getting along nicely, and all the indications point to her rapid recovery.

Mr. W. H. Lisle, who for the past six months has been at his home in Granville, has gone to Boston, Mass.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN GRANVILLE

Granville, O., March 2.—(Special)—1 p. m.—Great excitement prevails in the village and the entire town has turned out to meet Setson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company. The band is giving an open air concert on the plaza and is surrounded by a large crowd of admirers. The indications are that the company will be greeted with a record breaking house tonight.

Those who visit the Auditorium on Monday night, March 2, may look for something unusually meritorious and markedly original and superior repertoire organization. Mr. W. A. Partello presents the gifted and talented actress Alice Kennedy in the pretty college play by Justin Adams "The College Girl." She will be seen in the title role, that of the girl, Gai Hadleigh. This character is well developed and the most original of both playwright and the player's genius she is surrounded by a company that is fully adequate to the portrayal of the many different characters in the play. The story is in a high degree natural, consistent and thrilling. It is a powerful and consistent plot, the groundwork for the display is the strongest and most vividly effective situations of love, hatred, ambition, tyranny and craft. The scenic effect are the most realistic reproduction of college life, campus and landscape ever put upon the stage. There is an abundance of heart interest of the heroic kind, and plenty of genuine comedy to complete a most exciting and amusing evening's entertainment. Pleading specialties are interspersed between the acts.

THE RAJAH OF BHONG.

"The Rajah of Bhong" was Saturday's attraction at the Auditorium. Louis Powers in the character of the Hebrew airship inventor, Arthur P. Kherns, the German character man and Miss Carolyn Lilla, the prima donna, furnished the show. The character people were not very fun, and, considering the burlesque comedy used, brought forth some amusement. Miss Lilla has a prettiness and used it pleasingly, so much so that the featured song of the show "My Flower of the South," a beautiful number, should have been sung by her instead of by Mr. Matheon whose ill fate it was to be landed in the principal male role. Miss Lilla also sang "My Little Chicasaw" with good effect.

THEATRICAL MECHANICS

ORGANIZE LOCAL BRANCH WITH CHARTER MEMBERSHIP OF SEVENTY-ONE.

Officers to be Elected at Next Meeting
—Lodge Has Sick and Death Benefits.

A local chapter of the Theatrical Mechanics' Association was organized here Sunday afternoon at a meeting of local theatrical people, held in the Auditorium theater. The local lodge will be chartered at once with the 71 names already enrolled. At yesterday's meeting Frank Lippincott was elected temporary chairman and Matt Smith secretary. Permanent officers will be elected at the next meeting of the order, which will be held as soon as the state charter can be obtained.

Possibly very few people are aware of the fact that there are many theatrical people who call Newark home, as there are. Of the 71 charter members of the new society just formed, the greater proportion are local people, while some of the members are transients who call Newark their home. Many of these spend the summer here, at the parks or at home, making preparations for the next season's tour.

The "Theatrical Mechanics' Association" is certainly a worthy institution and is to the stage mechanic and box office man what the Actors' Fund Society is to the performer. Assistance is paid to a member in case of injury or sickness, and a death benefit is provided or the wives and children in case of the husband's death. And the chances for accident and deaths resulting from them, as many among theatrical people.

An attempt was made about a year ago to get the local people together and put this organization on foot. Owing to the time of the year and other unfavorable conditions, the attempt was unsuccessful, but it is believed that now the order is on a footing it will hold a prominent place among Newark organizations and will mean much to those theatergoers who are fortunate enough to hold membership in it.

OTTO MEYER

Meets With Great Success in H. Tour of France—Press Notices from Lyon.

Otto Meyer, Newark's celebrated violinist, who is now touring Europe played two concerts in Lyon, France. Recently, one with an orchestra and one without orchestra accompaniment. He is now in France, but letters addressed to him at this time should be addressed in care of Dresener Bank, Motzst, Berlin, Germany. Mr. Meyer expects to return to the United States early in May.

The Lyon, France, newspaper peak in high praise of Mr. Meyer as he following extract from notices following his appearance there indicate:

Salut Public—Mr. Mariott engaged for this concert a young American violinist, by name Otto Meyer, who is rapidly becoming known in Europe. He is a pupil of the famous Bohemian master, Sevik, and his technique is already thoroughly matured as one could see in the Humoresque of Dvorak, the minuet of Handel and especially in the extremely difficult piece for violin alone by Paganini, with which he ended his program.

Nouvellette—The virtuoso of the occasion was Otto Meyer, an American of excellent schooling, for he was a pupil of Sevik and Ysaye. In his playing one could see the good points of both schools. His tone was soft and firm, his fingering rapid and accurate and his bowing vigorous and clean.

La Depeche—In the immensely difficult cadenzas and finale of the Beethoven concerto Otto Meyer showed great brilliancy and virtuosity. The audience gave Mr. Meyer an ovation.

Le Tout—Otto Meyer, the soloist of the occasion showed by the manner in which he executed the difficult concerto in D of Beethoven that he is a thoroughly schooled and musicianly artist. He possesses a very personal artistic style, all his own, upon which we especially congratulate him.

TROUBLE AT DANCE

Several Black Eyes Received and the Police Are Called—Patrol Follows Street Car.

An attempt was made to break up a dance given by the Shimmel Brothers in A. I. U. hall Saturday evening. The police were called after several black eyes had been received by the participants.

After the dance a crowd followed the managers home in a street car, but it in turn was followed by the patrol wagon carrying a number of policemen and further trouble was averted. No arrests were made.

WALL PAPER TALK NO. 1

Wall Decorations For the Home

Not so very long ago the repapering of a room was associated with the spring house cleaning, and meant so much work that it took the average housekeeper several months to get nerved up to it; and then when the work was finally done it was nothing to get enthusiastic over.

Today it is all changed. Your room can be papered in a short time with very little trouble. It doesn't cost much more than it would to buy three or four new pictures, to cover up the bad spots, and when the work is done you have a room in which it is a pleasure to live.

We will tell you why. Yours for correct wall covering.

THOUGHTS ON BUSINESS

BY
WALDO PONDRAY WARREN

THE OTHER SIDE

RECENTLY I quoted the remarks of a prominent employer who said that "not over five per cent of the employees in the average mercantile concern are in earnest—that is, are really trying to do their best." I have received a number of interesting letters commenting on the point—few denying the statement, but many explaining why they think it is so.

One writer takes sides with the "rank and file" and among other things says:

"We must consider both sides of the question. If it is true that only five per cent are in earnest it seems to my mind a severe arraignment of employers themselves. Interest cannot be one-sided. It must be mutual. Employers can develop more interest among employees by the simple process of manifesting more interest on their own part. Many employers do not know their employees at all, and do not make much effort to know them. They know the heads of departments, and sometimes the assistants, but the rest of the force they don't know by sight. Furthermore, there is seldom anything like a promotion system whereby honest attention to business gets proper recognition and reward. Vacancies are frequently filled with new employees when the older ones are well able to do the work. Let employers show some definite interest in employees and you will see the employees' interest in the business increasing."

Dr. Herrmann is Improving. Replying to an inquiry from the Advocate, Mrs. Alfred A. Herrmann, writes from Chicago that Dr. Herrmann is now on the road to recovery, and expects to be out of doors within a few days. Should the doctor continue to gain strength as rapidly as he has during the past week, Mrs. Herrmann thinks that she and the doctor will be able to return to Newark the latter part of March.

Mr. David Thompson Improving. The many friends of Mr. David L. Thompson, who has been confined to his home, 152 West Main street, for the past three weeks, will be glad to learn that his condition is somewhat improved. Mr. Thompson, who is 74 years of age, has been suffering from throat trouble, which was greatly aggravated by an attack of the grip.

Brightening Circle. The Brightening Circle of King's Daughters will meet Tuesday at 3 p. m. at Miss Mary Nichols'.

Entertained at Sunday Dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith of 187 Gay street, entertained on Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Smith, with a sumptuous four course dinner. To see Mardi Gras.

Messrs. William Bolton, James Sheridan and James Ryan left Saturday night for New Orleans to see the Mardi Gras that is given there Monday and Tuesday.

Bar Tenders Dance. Tomorrow evening the Bar Tenders give their fourth annual ball, at A. I. U. hall. No expense has been spared to make this the best dance ever given by the local union. Remember the date, Tuesday evening, March 3.

Red Men Attend. The Newark lodge of Red Men attended the funeral of Charles N. Shircliff in a body, going to Kirkersvillo Sunday on a special interurban car. Mr. Shircliff was a member of the Red Men and during his stay with his mother at Kirkersville, had attended meetings of the local lodge. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Kite at 2 o'clock Sunday.

Civic Improvement Society. The Woman's Civic Improvement Society will meet at 3.30 Tuesday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. St. Elizabeth's Aid Society.

The St. Elizabeth's Aid Society will meet on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Prior, 119 South First street.

Medical Society Meeting. The Licking County Medical Society will hold its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, March 3, at 3 p. m. in the court house.

Teacher Returns. Miss Helen Feiger who has been ill for the past two weeks at her home in Mansfield, returned Sunday evening, and resumed her duties at the Newark High school Monday.

Manager Baum Returns. Manager Arthur J. Baum, of the Orphan, arrived in the city Saturday night from Michigan, where he was called by the death of his father. During Mr. Baum's absence the theater has been successfully managed by Mr. Harry Eldon.

Heber Bros.' Big Laugh. Heber Bros' big crowd of fun makers and real comedians will hold the boards at the Auditorium Saturday matinee and night. This entertainment promises a whole lot of good, entertainment and laughs, to the fullest extent of the admission prices.

High Waters Delay Trains. High waters on the Lake Erie division of the B. & O. delayed the morning trains for nearly two hours. Very little damage was done and the water was reported below the danger line Monday afternoon, and the trains were running close to schedule time.

Leap Year Babies. Born, on February 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Beach street, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Swan, 35 Maholm street, a son, to Mr. and Mrs. Riegelsperger, 3 Pine street, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wiemer, corner Granville and Tenth streets, Monday afternoon an 11 pound son.

Their Start in Life. In speaking of some of their prominent citizens and how they got their start in life, the Coshock Age says: Judge C. B. Hunt in his boyhood acted as agent for Penny, a well known Newark florist. He later, before taking to the law, clerked in a grocery and in a dry goods store of Coshockton.

Amputation, Horse Ran Away. Just as the driver of Bowers & McCament's ambulance was hitching up to make a hurry run to the residence of Ralph Bradley on North Seventh street, one of the horses escaped from the barn but was captured a few moments later on Hudson avenue. A woman at the Bradley home was seriously ill and the ambulance was wanted to take her to the Sanitarium.

Christian Union Revival. The revival of the North Newark Christian Union church will be continued every evening this week. The crowds were smaller yesterday on account of the rain and mud, but the meetings were interesting and five more new members were added to the church. Evangelist Dillin will preach this evening on, "The Man Up a Tree," and Miss Mary Dillin will sing. A most interesting service is expected and all are cordially invited.

March Ushered In. March was ushered in Sunday with what might be termed a variegated, climatic cocktail. Its approach was heralded with loud thunder and the flash of lightning, followed by showers of the April variety. Stirred into this combination was the balmy air of early spring and a dash—ever so little—of sunshine. It is a puzzle whether the first day can be taken as a criterion of what is to follow. However, we'll hope for little of the "blistering March winds" and an early spring.

GOT HIS OMELET.

Why One Man Ceased Trying to Be Funny With Waiters.

"I've never tried to be funny with a waiter," the traveler was saying, "since the time when I had a little experience with one in California. It was several years ago, and I was rather 'fresh.' I stepped into a restaurant one morning and ordered an omelet. 'What kind?' asked the waiter. 'Why, are there more kinds than one?' I said. 'Oh, yes, sir,' he answered me; 'there are several.' 'Well, bring me an ostrich egg omelet.' 'All right, sir,' he said, 'but you'll have to wait quite awhile. It takes a long time to make an ostrich egg omelet.' 'I told him I had plenty of time. He went away and was gone fully an hour. Then he came back with a big covered dish. 'There you are, sir,' he said, placing it before me and uncovering it. 'Well, it was an omelet, all right, and big enough for half a dozen men. Whether there was an ostrich farm in the neighborhood and he got a real ostrich egg or whether he made it from a couple of dozen hens' eggs I don't know, but I distinctly remember that it cost me $2—and I learned a valuable lesson'—Youth's Companion

OBITUARY

MISS LILLY PERKINS. Miss Lilly D. Perkins died at the home of her mother, 191 South Pine street, West Newark, Sunday morning, at the age of 42 years. Death followed an illness of about a year, due to a complication of diseases.

Beside her mother, the deceased leaves one brother, Joseph Perkins, of Morrow county, and four sisters, Mrs. Irene McFarland, Knox county, Mrs. Rebecca Arnold and Mrs. Sarah Wien, of this city, and Mrs. Mamie Disbennett of Johnstown.

The funeral service will take place Tuesday afternoon at Lock, O., to which place the body will be taken.

MRS. LUKE B. REYNOLDS. Appleton, O., March 2—Clara, wife of Luke B. Reynolds, died at her home here, between Johnstown and Utica, Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, aged 90 years. Death resulted from diseases incident to advanced age. She is survived by her aged husband, who is 95 years old, and two stepchildren, Joseph Reynolds of Johnstown, and Mrs. C. D. Hand, who resides at home.

The funeral services were held at the home on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McDaniel of Alexandria officiating. Interment was made in the Concord cemetery.

JOHN M. HOLTON. Mr. John M. Holton, one of the best known and most prominent farmers of Licking county, died at his home in Eden township, Sunday evening at 4 15 o'clock, of paralysis which he had been afflicted a long time.

He is survived by his widow, his only son, a bright and promising young man, having died about three months ago. The Holton family has been severely afflicted, three brothers having died within the past year, two of whom also lost sons. He is survived by two brothers, Squire W. F. Holton of this city, and George W. Holton. Mr. Holton was a member of Brocksdale lodge No. 464, F. & A. M. of Wilkin Run.

The funeral services will be held at Eden church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock and the interment will be made in the adjoining cemetery.

EMMA SWEET ROWE. In loving remembrance of Mrs. Emma Sweet Rowe, who departed this life February 12, 1908. She was dearly beloved by all with whom she came in contact.

Dearest Emma, thou hast left us in our youthful years; Left us amazed and broken hearted, And full of weeping tears. Gone where the silver clouds are shining, Weeping thou knowest not; But dear Emma, thy many deeds of kindness Never, never, shall be forgot We no more thy face shall see. The sweet voice loved is still. A place is vacant in thy once happy home Which never can be filled. —L. S.

MRS. WELLS' FUNERAL. Lock, March 2—Mrs. Ellen Wells, of Croton, who died at her home Friday, was buried Sunday afternoon. She leaves several children.

CARD OF THANKS. We desire to thank those who assisted us at the time of the sickness and death of Mrs. Della Alexander, also for the floral offerings, Rev. Mr. Vernon and Carl Evans for his untiring efforts. Mr. Henry Miller and family.

Experience of Syracuse Man. Mr. Wm. I. Brown of Syracuse, N. Y., says: "Four years ago I contracted a severe lung trouble. Doctors in Fenton hospital, Utica, gave me up—said no hope. I continued to fail until I only weighed 68 pounds. They sent me home from the hospital saying they could do nothing for me.

Later I saw Vinol advertised, and immediately began taking it. I improved after the first bottle, so continued its use for three months. Today I weigh 157 pounds and am well and healthy. I really believe Vinol saved my life."

The reason Vinol accomplishes such surprising results is because Vinol is a combination of the curative elements of two world famed tonics, cod liver oil and peptonate-of-iron, but short of all useless oil or grease. Vinol is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, combining with peptonate-of-iron all the medicinal, healing, body-building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil to upset the stomach and retard its work.

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, after sickness, and for chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis, and all throat and lung troubles, Vinol is unexcelled. We ask Newark people to try it on our offer to return their money if it fails to give satisfaction. Frank D. Hall, druggist Newark, Ohio.

You would all eat Mapl-Flake if it cost 10 cents per package. You would all want our maple flavor—our perfect cooking—were it not for that five-cent difference.

But what if Mapl-Flake is 15 cents?

Figure the whole cost—the food and the cream together. Cream costs as much on poor food as on good food. See how little you save.

You want Mapl-Flake because it tastes best. But that is of least importance. The vital fact is that Mapl-Flake is cooked best.

Our process requires 96 hours.

That is four times as long as it need take—four times as long as it does take some others. There is where our extra cost comes in.

But all of the wheat is thus made digestible. By a shorter process it is not.

Starch, to be digestible, must be made soluble. The particles must be separated for the digestive juices. That requires proper cooking.

So our wheat is steam-cooked for six hours, then cured, then flaked, then toasted 30 minutes at 400 degrees.

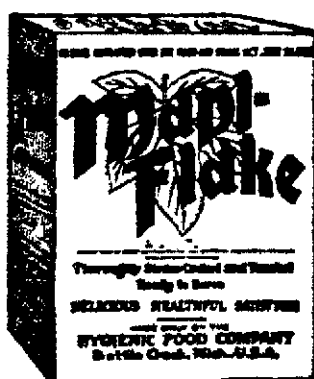

That process is expensive, but it is necessary, else we would not employ it. For without it we could give you Mapl-Flake at 10 cents.

Isn't it better to have a food that's all food, because every whit digests? Isn't it even more economical?

We boil our wheat in pure maple syrup—the source of our delicious flavor. That is less important to you, perhaps, than it is to a child. It induces a child to like the food that is best for it.

Wheat is the perfect food—Mapl-Flake its perfect form. But the deciding point with a child, you'll find, is the maple sugar flavor.

The only food served in individual packages in hotels, clubs, cafes, and on dining cars

ROOSEVELT, SAYS
GERMAN EDITORWashington, March 2.—Hermann Rudner, the New York German editor and publisher was at the White House Saturday and, after a talk with the President, came out and announced it as his opinion that the President wanted to be renominated.
"The opposing candidates for the presidency," he said, in response to a question, "will be Roosevelt and Bryan.""What makes you think Mr.
Roosevelt will be renominated?"
"It is plain enough that he will be named at Chicago," he replied.
"Furthermore, Mr. Roosevelt wants to be renominated."Ex-Secretary Shaw Thinks Roosevelt
Will Be Named at Chicago.New York, March 2.—Leslie M.
Shaw, former secretary of the treasury, in a statement Saturday denied that he was seeking the presidential nomination, and intimated that President Roosevelt would be a candidate for a third term. He said that financial conditions were improving and that confidence would be soon restored."I have been quoted in opposition to President Roosevelt. On the contrary, I think that the mission of President Roosevelt is as important as any of his predecessors, with the exception of Washington and Lincoln," he said.That counterfeit half-dollar of

Pertinent Points About Our Election
Machinery For New Voters and Old

THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE.

What is the electoral college?
That is the popular but unofficial designation of the body of men who elect the president and vice president of the United States.What! Don't the people elect the president?
Well, only indirectly. The people elect the presidential electors, who compose what is known as the electoral college. The constitution of the United States provides that each state shall choose as many electors as there are senators and representatives in congress from the state. Each political party in each state nominates the state's proper quota of candidates for electors. These candidates are placed on the general state ticket, and the set that receives a majority or a plurality of the state vote is elected.What then?
The presidential electors in each state meet at a designated point in the state on the second Monday in January following the general election and cast their ballots for president and vice president. Three lists are made out, one of which is deposited with the federal judge of the district. The other two are sent to the president of the United States senate, one by mail, one by messenger.And the next step?
The next and final step takes place in the hall of the house of representatives at Washington on the second Wednesday in February.
Both houses assemble, and the presiding officer of the senate opens and counts the state returns and announces the result.

STATE'S FINANCES
BECOMING SERIOUS
SAYS THE GOVERNORGreat Falling Off of Receipts by Reason of the More County Option Bill.Columbus, March 2.—Gov. Harris gave the legislative committee a talk on Saturday in regard to the finances of the state and the utter inability of the state at this time to enter upon an extended program of building.Governor Harris, in that talk, said that there would be a great falling off in the receipts of the state during the coming year, unless a signtacked. There would be a reduction in the receipts from the liquor traffic by reason of the enactment of the Rice law, and the same conditions would prevail in the amount to be paid in for the wills law and the Cole laws, with a diminution in the one open receipts, and a general falling away in all sources of revenue.
The governor said there would have to be some additional means for raising money devised very soon, and suggested that it might be necessary to go back to the counties for assistance. He understood that a reduction of the county levy would be very distasteful to the people, but there was a financial condition facing the state that must be met. Even with the estimated balance of four and a quarter million dollars to work upon it had been found that it would not suffice for the demand. In the list of needs that of the various state institutions was the most important factor, and from the estimates furnished by the governor, it would seem that the support of the unfortunate classes of our citizens was fast becoming a burden upon the people, with the figures increasing every year.Continuing the governor said:
"There must be more money raised for the absolute needs of the state.
A plan is now being worked out to produce more revenue, but I am not at liberty to discuss that feature.""Unless something is determined upon, there is nothing left except to reinstall the county levy, and there will be great objection to that. Something must be done for the relief of the situation, for with all of our hoarded surplus there is not enough to go round, and there will have to be a large paring down of the estimates if we are to keep clear of debt.""Had dyspepsia or indigestion for years. No appetite, and what I did eat distressed me terribly. Burdock Blood Purifiers cured me."—J. H. Walker, Sunbury, Ohio.CORN CAMPAIGN IN PROGRESSA corn campaign seems to be in progress the country over. A corn campaign is likely to be as of much benefit to the country at large as a political campaign, and it is not half so disheartening. Corn campaigns are waged to improve the corn output and to increase the yield, and meetings are being held over the country to consider the one matter of greatest importance, namely, how to secure the right kind of seed corn. Each county in Ohio has gone into the campaign determined to be the banner county in 1908, and old Licking should in no ways lag behind her neighbors in the attempt to grow 100 bushels to the acre.

CHARGED

With Stealing and Selling Stolen Rugs Man and Woman Arrested Saturday Afternoon.

Charged with stealing a portion of $85 worth of rugs from a peddler's wagon belonging to the Peebles Merchandise company of Columbus, Ed (Granny) Elben and Mary Taylor, who to an Advocate reporter admitted being Mrs. Rhoda Miles, were arrested by Officers Callan and Hager Saturday afternoon.

Elben was arrested Friday night by Officer Brown, charged with being drunk, and denied emphatically that he was mixed up in the deal. On the other hand the girl claims that either Monday or Tuesday last week he came to her and offered her half of what she got for selling some rugs for him. When questioned by her, she claims Elben said that it was "allright and that the rugs were at his home."

Upon her agreeing to sell them he returned with three rugs and she sold them to the Keller pawn shop, getting two dollars for them. Later he gave her three more rugs and a blanket to sell. When they were disposed of he gave her half of the proceeds.

The wagon was in the Bolton livery barn and was broken open and the rugs stolen. Peddlers make Columbus their headquarters and drive overland selling what goods they can.

Paul Weiss, the driver of the peddler's wagon, appeared before Mayor Atherton this afternoon and swore to three affidavits charging Ed Elben, Ed. Hathaway and Mrs. John Miles with the theft of the rugs. Their case will be tried tomorrow morning.

BURGLARS

BREAK INTO EVANS DRUG STORE SATURDAY NIGHT AND SECURE FIFTY CENTS.

Was Probably the Work of Amateur, as They Overlooked $30 in a Drawer Near Register.

Amateur burglars crawled over the front transom of the T. J. Evans drug store, on the East Side of the Square, Sunday night between 11 and 1 o'clock, and stole fifty cents from the cash register. Not being up in the art of safe-cracking, the would-be robbers overlooked a sum of money in the safe, and also $30 in lodge funds kept in a drawer near the register. The matter was reported to the police department Monday morning as soon as it was discovered and it is probable that the perpetrators will be in the hands of the officers shortly.

DRUNK

Breaks Scarlet Fever Quarantine and is Arrested by the Police After a Hard Fight.

Officer Chester had an exciting experience Friday night about 11 o'clock, when he was called to the home of J. P. Gaines, 195 Chilton street, where he arrested the man for drunkenness. Gaines came home as he had been refused admission by his wife because of the serious illness of their daughter, he smashed in a large window and entered the house.

The little girl has been ill of scarlet fever for some time and the house has been under quarantine. Gaines has been told to stay away by his wife several times on account of his refusing to stay in the house as ordered by the health officer, so when he forced his way into the dwelling Friday night his wife called the police. Gaines was upstairs when the officer arrived, and refused to go when placed under arrest. A fight followed and as the men neared a flight of stairs Gaines lost his footing and plunged headlong to the bottom. He was not injured and stood quietly while awaiting the arrival of the patrol. In police court he was given the usual dose reserved for disorderly drunks.

ANSWER FILED

IN SUIT OF THE HEISEY COMPANY IN GAS DAMAGE CASE

March Term of Probate Criminal Court Begins—Judge Brister Appoints Examiners.

In the case of A. H. Heisey & Co. against Charles T. Cramer and others the defendants have filed their answer. This is a suit brought by the Heisey company against Charles T. Cramer for $7000 damages for failure to comply with the terms and conditions of a gas lease. Defendants deny all the allegations of the plaintiff not admitted to be true, and ask that the petition be dismissed.

Transcript Filed.

A transcript from Mayor Atherton's court in the case of the State of Ohio against John Bippus, bound over to the Common Pleas court on a charge of burglar, has been filed with the clerk of the court.

Treasury Examiners Appointed.

Probate Judge Brister has appointed Messrs. A. A. Stassel and F. A. Bolton to make the examination of the county treasury and the auditor's office. They were sworn in and immediately entered upon the discharge of their duties.

Answer Filed in Will Contest.

In the case of Emma B. Shambaugh against Emma B. Shambaugh, administrator, and others, suit brought to determine the validity of the will of Elijah H. Shambaugh, deceased, the defendants, J. W. Shannon and Charles Shannon, have filed their answer. They say that it is true that on the 7th of March, 1907, the will of Elijah H. Shambaugh, dated Dec. 25, 1907, was admitted to probate, and that letters of administration with the will annexed, were issued to Emma B. Shambaugh. They deny all the other allegations and ask that plaintiff's petition be dismissed. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for the defendant.

Probate Criminal Court.

The March term of the Probate Criminal court was held Monday morning with Probate Judge Brister on the bench.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. Samuel Holton, charged with petit larceny, was called, but owing to the death of an uncle of Mr. Holton, the case was continued until March 10 at 9 o'clock. B. G. Smythe represented the defendant.

The case of the State of Ohio vs. A. Taylor, charged with practicing medicine illegally, was called and the defendant, by his attorney, B. G. Smythe, demanded a jury. The case was continued until Monday, March 16 at 9 o'clock.

Jurors for Taylor Case.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. A. Taylor, charged with illegal practicing of medicine, and which will be tried in the Probate court on Monday, March 16, the following jurors have been drawn to try the case: Charles Rees, Graville township; William Knauber, Newark city; John W. Moore, Harrison township; Thos. Edman, Burlington township; E. N. Baird, Lima township; John Richardson, Hanover township; Samuel H. Roschrough, Union township; Chas. Summerville, Perry township; Festus Hoover, Newark city; G. W. Applegate, etc., J. T. O'Brien, Perry township; J. J. McNamara, Lima township; James Westlake, Newark city; E. A. Cochran, Newark city; James H. Alsbach, Newark city; Edward Foster, Liberty township.

Common Pleas Court.

In the case of Mary A. Keckley et al. vs. John E. Powers et al., the arguments of counsel were made this morning, and the court charged the jury this afternoon. Plaintiffs sue to set aside a will of the late Francis M. Powers, Kibler & Montgomery, Smythe & Smythe.

State of Ohio vs. Hugh Ditch, indicted for cutting with intent to wound. Plea accepted of guilty of assault and battery. Sentenced to pay a fine of $15 and costs. Russell & Horner.

Amza A. Westbrook et al. executors vs. A. Q. Miner et al. Motion sustained. Leave given to file an amended answer in 30 days. Kibler & Montgomery, Huhard.

I. R. Waters et al. vs. B. Andorn. Appeal from justice's court. Motion sustained to dismiss appeal. Flory & Flory; Fulton & Fulton.

Ralph R. Rowe vs. Benjamin Rowe et al., a proceeding to contest a will. Motion to dismiss overruled. Smythe & Smythe.

Ross vs. State. Submitted heretofore on motion to fix bond and suspend sentence. Sentence suspended for five days. Smythe & Smythe; Kibler & Montgomery.

Fined for Stealing Coal.

Joseph Santic, Din Flucis, Constan Stuncin, and E. L. Glancy, Hungarians, were arrested by B. & O. Officers Roberts and Bennett charged with stealing coal from cars belonging to the company. They were each fined $1 and the costs by Squire Holton, which were paid.

Brief on Motion.

In the case of Charles J. Freas vs. the Toledo and Ohio Central Railway company, the defendant has filed a motion to require plaintiffs to make his petition more definite and certain. Kibler & Montgomery, attorneys.

Howard vs. Howard.

In the case of Howard vs. Howard in Probate court a hearing was held on the matter of alimony. The court ordered the defendant to pay plaintiff monthly the sum of $20 as alimony until the case was finally heard. J. Howard Jones, J. R. Fitzgibbon.

Case Continued.

The case of Clifford Arrick vs. the Licking Window Glass company was continued on the application of the defendant. J. Howard Jones, J. R. Fitzgibbon.

HOTEL SWANK

Sheltered Three Hundred and Eighty-Six Homeless Wanderers During Month of February.

February was a busy month for "Hotel Swank" and during the entire twenty-nine days three hundred and eighty-six homeless wanderers applied for shelter over night. Just about 6:30 o'clock at night the procession starts and then continues until about midnight, very seldom do "bbs" apply for accommodations after this hour, for they seem to be "an early to bed and early to rise" bunch of men.

This probably isn't because they like to turn in so early, but they know that the first in get the closest to the big stove and the choice spots on the bench. Neither do they like getting out early in the morning but they haven't anything to say about that and when Turnkey Swank goes off duty at 6 o'clock there isn't a "sleeper" in the prison to welcome the arrival of Turnkey McCrum.

The low mark was reached during the warm days early in the month when but six men applied for a place to sleep during the night. Twenty-five was the high mark. Usually when the warm weather comes the travellers sleep in cars but the cold weather makes them cut the length of their jumps.

MOORS

Give Desperate Battle to the French—Cavalry Were Surrounded But Cut Their Way Out.

Paris, March 2.—Advices received from General D'Amade, commander of the French forces in Morocco, report another furious fight with the Madakara tribesmen, which lasted from 8 o'clock in the morning until nightfall, the French losing 11 men killed and 36 wounded.

The French expedition had not penetrated far into the country when it was attacked with the greatest ferocity by hordes of tribesmen, both mounted and on foot, who kept the French troops at bay throughout the day. At one time the French cavalry was surrounded by the enemy but the troopers succeeded in cutting their way out by a brilliant charge.

A column of French troops pushed the advantage and gave victory. A suit for a distance of several miles, inflicting severe losses on the enemy.

IDLEWILDE PARK

TO BE COMPLETELY OVERHAULED BY NEW MANAGEMENT THIS SEASON.

Full List of Attractions and Amusements, Including New Roller Skating Rink.

Manager S. K. Hayes promises Newark a better Idlewilde park than she has had for some time, and is sparing little time and expense toward making Idlewilde one of the finest resorts in Central Ohio.

Among the attractions we will feature during the coming summer will be the fine, new dance hall, with music furnished by a good, big orchestra; the circle wheel, a new amusement device, a new carousel; the arcades and shooting gallery. The bath and boat houses and a new skating rink will also be features of the park this summer, as outside attractions.

In the casino, the management expects to run a complete advanced list of summer attractions, including dramatic productions, musical comedies and light opera. It is understood that the opening bill will be a week of comic opera.

The theatre is being entirely redecorated and refitted with new scenery. All house attaches will be uniformed, including stage hands, who will appear in "purest white."

The exact date for opening the park has not yet been set but it will probably be the latter part of May.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

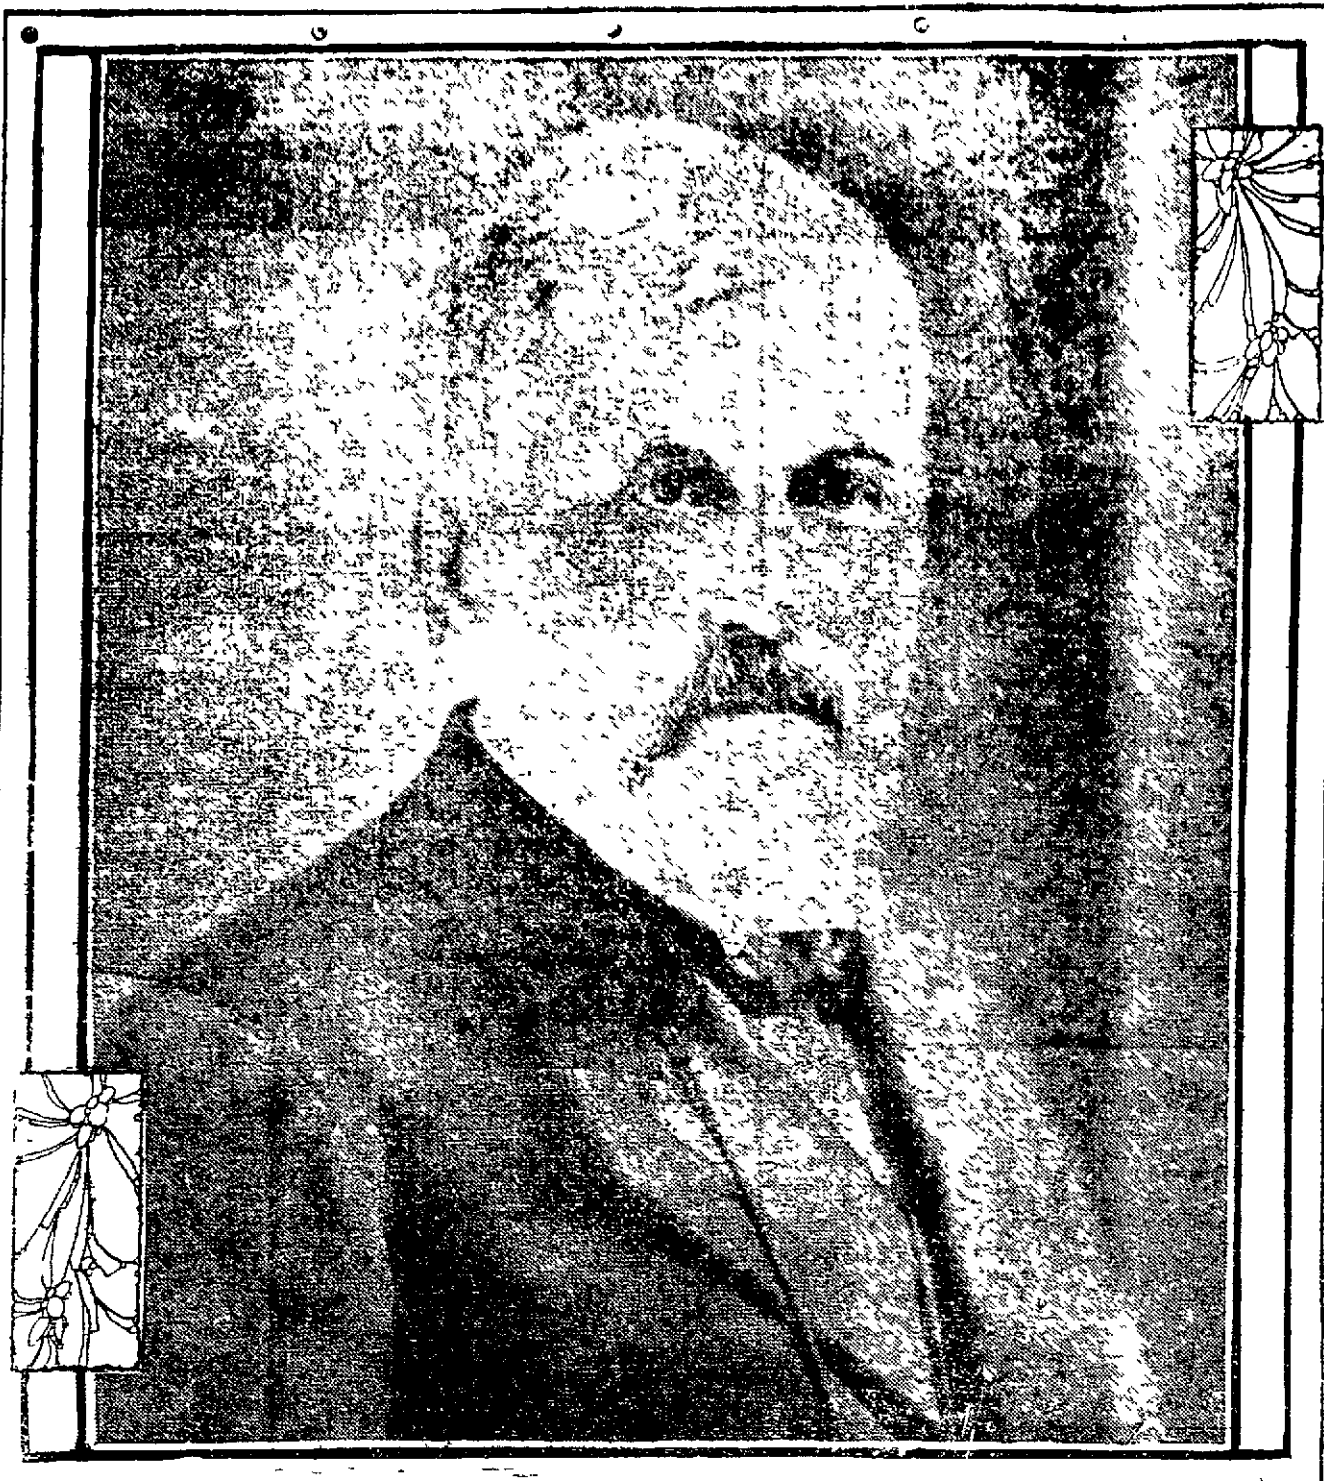

GIVEN TO HOME FAMILY AT GRANVILLE BY LADIES OF M. E. CHURCH.

Splendid Program—Bordered and Bounteous Dinner, Served—Beautiful Flowers Presented.

Granville, March 2.—The ladies of the Methodist church of this place gave a farewell reception to the Home family from 2:30 o'clock to 7 o'clock, when the friends gathered bringing with them baskets and bundles of good things to eat. An excellent program had been prepared and Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk, as chairman, opened the program by having that dear old hymn sung, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds." Rev. Mr. Maxwell led in prayer, and was followed by Miss La Ferre who rendered a beautiful solo. Rev. Mr. Miller pastor of the Methodist church, then delivered a very interesting address. He spoke very feelingly of the pleasant meetings and associations he had had in the old building since he came as pastor, and how the faces of those who were so faithful in their attendance at the church service when able, would be missed after the removal to College Hill. Rev. Mr. Miller expressed the desire that the Home would always be remembered by the people here as one of the missionary departments of the church, where all help and aid would be thankfully received in carrying on the work it was doing. Mr. John Graham, as one of the members of the church board, expressed regret at the leaving of the family from Granville, and the loss the church would sustain, and the help and inspiration it had been to know and see the faith that had sustained and guided so many years the lives of people who, after 70 or 85 years spent in the service of the church, were ready to depend and be guided to the end.

Misses Minnie and Mary Cross then sang a beautiful number, which was greatly appreciated by the old people. Mrs. Van Kirk spoke feelingly and said that she had always been cheered

HAS JUST CELEBRATED SEVENTY-NINTH BIRTHDAY.

SENATOR WM. B. ALLISON

Senator William Boyd Allison of Iowa, has just celebrated his seventy-ninth birthday. Colleagues of Senator Allison, both Republicans and Democrats, united in their congratulations by the readiness of which they sought to show their appreciation of his services and the hope that is universal among them—that he may be successful in the contest that is now being waged against him in Iowa.

and helped when she visited the Home.

Mrs. Peirry represented the W. F. M. S., and spoke of the willingness and ready assistance rendered by the Home family since then coming to Granville, and the pleasant meetings that had been held in the Home.

Mrs. Prior represented the W. H. U. S. spoke of the help the society had received by the ready assistance to help or do what they could when called upon, and the pleasant meetings held. Mrs. Prior also mentioned the fact that over five years ago she had assisted in furnishing a dinner to welcome the coming of the family to Granville, and while she did not know what they liked to eat she made mince pies and all lived after eating them and she knew now that they liked good eating.

Mrs. J. M. Jones, president of the W. C. T. U., represented that society, and gave some pleasant reminiscences of the meetings held there with the family.

Dr. Davis represented the Sunday school. He said that the members of the school would feel the loss of the family severely.

Miss Serena Montgomery represented the Epworth League and said the members felt that they had been encouraged and strengthened by the members of the league, and that it made the young people more ready to continue their Christian lives.

The program was interspersed with some beautiful numbers rendered by the Misses Cross and Miss La Ferre.

At the conclusion of the program a social season was had, after which all were invited into the dining room where a fine supper had been prepared. Here 44 members of the family were seated at the tables, together with some of the older ones, while the others, young people, middle aged and old, were seated around the room, where suppers were served on plates. Mrs. Martha Ellis, who is 82 years old was present and enjoyed the supper immensely.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Friday February 28. Besides the family there were about fifty present, being an unusually large attendance. A fine program had been prepared which was in charge of Miss Vance. Several musical selections were given by Miss J. J. Norris, Misses Deardorf and Morris and Mr. Brown.

At the close of the meeting Mr. J. W. Carlin gave an hour's talk to the family on missionary work in China, exhibiting some relics she had brought home with her, and explaining and answering questions to the pleasure of all.

After the returned to all these societies and to the friends who have been with us on many pleasant occasions and on so many pleasant hours to our aged ones.

Dr. A. H. Norcross was the guest of the Home Saturday night.

Sunday afternoon three young ladies, students of Denison, Misses Sorenson, Frances Edmondson, and Mrs. Dickerson, made a pleasant call at the Home, visiting each room and leaving a box of machine and spring beauty in the bright yellow jowls (and daffodils) they gave to each one. These were the first flowers of the season to come to us.

SELLS CIGAR FACTORY

Mr. Otto Vogelmeier Purchases Geo. H. Starrett Plant—Will Increase the Force.

Mr. George L. Starrett, who, for the past eighteen years, has so successfully conducted the well known cigar manufactory, corner of West Park Place and West Main street, has disposed of the business to Mr. Otto A. Vogelmeier, who for the past three months has been engaged in the manufacture of cigars on the South Side of the Public Square.

It is Mr. Vogelmeier's intention to manufacture cigars on quite an extensive scale, and a number of the most skilled workmen to be obtained will be employed. Mr. Evert Everts, who has the reputation of being one of the most efficient workmen in the city will occupy the position of foreman of the new shop. As yet Mr. Starrett has formed no plans for the future.

DON'T WANT TO LEAVE JAIL

"Jack" Walters, the "deep sea" sailor, who was arrested by Capt. J. M. Bennett of the B. & O. R. R. service on the charge of train riding was fined $1 and the costs and sent to jail. Monday Justice Holton wrote an order for his release, but the sailor man absolutely refused to leave his snug quarters. The Justice ordered the man to be brought before him. Walters claimed that he was sick and was ordered back to jail.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

WILL BE CONTROLLED BY FIVE OF THE PARTY'S BIG BOSSSES.

Looks as if There Would be Old Fashioned Setup—Will Ellis be Renominated?

Columbus, March 2.—Four men will feature the Republican convention tomorrow. Cox, Burton, Brown and Voys will each control to a certain extent. The question is will they get together. It is a matter of concessions. At present it looks as though there would be a real old fashioned scrap. If there has been a slate it has been so shattered that there is only one piece left large enough to carry a whole name. It is that of U. G. Denman, Brown's Toledo candidate for attorney general, and there was a rumor today that it was being framed to renominate Wade Ellis for that office. Burton is said to favor this.

LINGAFELTERS

HAVE FILED ANSWER TO SUIT TO RECOVER ATTORNEY FEES

Claim Agreement Has Not Been Kept and Note for $1,000 Given Attorney Has Not Been Returned.

Columbus, March 2.—Some time ago Thomas J. Abernathy began an action in the common pleas court against Mary J. and James F. Lingafelter of Newark, to recover fees for services as their attorney. Mr. Abernathy was the attorneys for the Lingafelters through all their difficulties. The defendant has filed an answer to the suit. They stated that they had given Mr. Abernathy a note for $1,000, but afterwards they went in an agreement with him to pay him $3,000 for all his services, which agreement they say has been complied with. At the time of making the contract to pay $3,000, it is claimed that Abernathy agreed to turn back to them the note, and they claim that notwithstanding the fact that they have made demands for it, he still refuses to return it, but has used on it.

Thomas A. Edison was threatened with pneumonia, he could get nothing to relieve his suffering. At length he tried Ajax Cold Cure and it cured the Cold at once. He always has Ajax now.

DEMENTED MAN BOUND TO DIE

Piqua, O., March 2.—Grip caused Wm. Bucks to lose his mind. He jumped through a second story window, striking a telephone pole, badly injuring himself. He then ran to the Miami river and threw himself in. Being pulled out by two policemen, he flung them both aside and again jumped in and was drowned.

Repulsiveness

There's something decidedly repulsive about unsightly, decayed teeth. Especially as they are usually accompanied by bad breath, a bad stomach and an ugly disposition.

There's no excuse for any of these ills. Have the teeth put in condition and the stomach soon resumes its normal condition, the breath its natural sweetness and the temper it wonted mildness.

FEW LAUNDRY PATRONS CAN

Imagine a more deplorable state of affairs than to have their work done at a laundry where all, from manager down, are inexperienced, and where the water used is impure. In order to produce the best result in the laundry, as in all other industries, there must be ripe experience, and the use of materials, from water down through the list, that are PURE, and consequently sanitary. Pure, sweet laundry cannot be produced with impure water any more than with impure soap or other materials. The water used by the NEWARK STEAM LAUNDRY is the same as is used for ordinary purposes by all the citizens of Newark. It is treated by a scientific process, so that it is rendered entirely soft and pure. The plant necessary to produce these results was installed at a cost of many hundreds of dollars. If you are particular about having your work done under the most sanitary conditions, the NEWARK STEAM LAUNDRY is the place to have it done. We do family washing at 5c. per pound, rough dry. This includes the ironing of all flat pieces, such as table and bed linen, counterpanes, towels, etc., and the starching of the wearing apparel. The proprietor and manager of this laundry has had over 30 years' experience in the laundry business, and most of the employees in the different departments have had from five to twenty years' experience—all in this laundry. There is no better equipped laundry in Eastern Ohio than the NEWARK STEAM, in every particular and none with a better reputation for fine work. Corner Fourth and Church Streets.
